~~With~~ reference to your letter No 4622-31/M1 196-28-2 dated 10-1-29, asking me as to what steps the Municipal Council have been taking to control stray dogs etc I have the honor to state that stray and ownerless dogs are being systematically poisoned with strychnine by a special agency solely appointed for that purpose

I am however considering a scheme for simultaneously catching a good number of stray dogs every month collecting them in a place like the Padavarhally Cattle Pound outside the city and poisoning the whole lot I shall report as to the necessary steps taken in this connection

As for rabies within the city there have been only rare cases

Mysore District

1	Malvalli	Action is being taken in the matter
2	Nanjangud
3	krishnarajpet	Strychnine is used with rice for destroying dogs when they develop rabies and rewards are being offered to persons who destroy rabid dogs
4	French Rocks
5	Seringapatam	The Municipal Council have provided Rs 25 for the purpose and action will be taken under Section 126 A of the Municipal Regulation
6	Periyapatna	The Municipal Council have resolved that the townspeople should be made known that dogs found to wander without badges in the Municipal area would be destroyed as per suggestions of the local Sub Assistant Surgeon and they have provided funds in their budget
7	T Narsipur	Takes action under Section 126 A of the Municipal Regulation
8	Yelandur	Wide publicity given of the provision of section 126 A and annas four is offered to persons who destroy rabid dogs
9	Saragur	Wide publicity given of the provision of section 126 A but no provision is made to offer prizes
10	Chamarajnagar	Proclamation issued
11	Hunsur	Proclamation issued

Kolar District

Very few Municipal Councils have been enforcing Section 126 A of the Municipal Regulation in their respective limits All have agreed to bring this section into operation in future by providing a reasonable sum in the next year's budget to meet the cost incidental to the enforcement of the said section

Chikballapur Kulbagal	Are making necessary provision in their budgets for the above purpose

Tumkur District

1	Sira	No action has been taken in the matter but that necessary steps will hereafter taken under the provisions of the Municipal regulation
2	Madhugiri	No special steps in this direction are necessary as the number of stray dogs in the Municipality is very small
3 & 4	Chiknaikanahalli & Pavagada	Necessary action is being taken in consultation with the Health Committees and that in extreme cases destruction of rabid dogs is resorted to
5 & 6	Tumkur and Tiptur	Strychnine is purchased and kept in the local Dispensary and whenever a dog is found to be sickly or rabid, the same is poisoned and also that the owners tie collars to their dogs to distinguish them from the stray dogs

Bangalore City Municipality

Stray dogs are daily caught and brought in a cart to the dog pound at the Fort Gate Health Office where they are kept for 36 hours, pending the arrival of claimants and if the latter fail to appear within the time limit, the unclaimed dogs are destroyed

The number of dogs destroyed during 1927 and 1928 were 1974 and 2060 whereas the number xxxkx released in those years where 15 and 16 respectively

Mysore City Municipality

States that stray and ownerless dogs are being -- systematically poisoned with strychnine by a special agency solely appointed for that purpo e

A scheme for catching a good number of stray dogs every month, collecting them in Padvarhalli Cattle -- Pound outside the City and poisoning the whole lot Under the immediate supervision of the Health Officer, nearly 200 stray and ownerless dogs were caught, impound ed in Padvarhalli Cattle Pound and destroyed with strychnine poinsoning in the course of the last 3 weeks Further efforts in the same direction are being kept up

As for rabies within the City there have been only rare cases
